

Applications for school year 2017-2018 were set to close on February 5th with a total of 123 applicants, eight of which are applying in two departments. I made the decision to keep our application open for one more week with a closing date of February 12th. The purpose of this is so that we can increase the talent diversity in our applicant pool.

Come March, I will create a full comprehensive Admissions report.
