STUDENT COMPLAINT PROCEDURES POLICY

New Mexico School for the Arts (the "School"), a statewide public high school, provides access to a rigorous mastery arts and academic high school education for youth with passion and aptitude in the arts, leading to post-secondary learning, careers in the arts, and lives that contribute to society. This Student Complaint Procedures Policy is adopted for the purpose of providing its students with a method of presenting and resolving complaints relating to matters affecting the student relationship at the lowest level possible and of complying with applicable federal and state laws and regulations. NMSA recognizes that it is beneficial for students to develop self-advocacy skills in order to become productive adults and this Complaint Procedure Policy reflects this philosophy. This Student Complaint Procedures Policy is not applicable to circumstances that are governed by specific policies such as the Bullying Prevention Policy.

NMSA encourages all students to resolve complaints informally in a spirit of trust where possible. If the student is unable to resolve a complaint with an informal conversation, then the following procedure should be followed by the student for resolution of the complaint.

Step 1. The student shall make an appointment and present the complaint to the teacher, staff member, counselor, or administrator with whom the students has a complaint. A discussion of the specific concerns and solutions for resolving the complaint shall be held. The student's parent(s) may attend the meeting. Parent(s) of residential students may meet by telephone.

Step 2. If the matter cannot be resolved at Step 1, then the student shall make an appointment and present the complaint to the Assistant Principal. The student and the Assistant Principal shall discuss the specific concerns and solutions for resolving the complaint. The student's parent(s) may attend the meeting. Parent(s) of residential students may meet by telephone.

Step 3. If the matter cannot be resolved at Step 2, the student shall present the matter to the Head of School. The specific concerns of the student and solutions for resolution of the complaint will be discussed with the Head of School. The student's parent(s) may attend the meeting. Parent(s) of residential students may meet by telephone. The Head of School, in consultation with the student and the Assistant Principal, will determine how to resolve the complaint. The decision of the Head of School will be final.

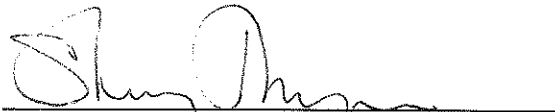

In addition to the procedures set forth in this Policy, if a complaint is filed pursuant to the McKinney-Vento Education for Homeless Children and Youth Act, then the procedures also shall comply with the applicable provisions of federal and state laws and regulations.
